

Activities held in France on the occasion of the 2005 International Day for the Preservation of the Ozone Layer

The French Ministry of Ecology and Development organized a seminar in Paris on “Ozone, Climate Change and Mobility” that was opened to the public with feature leading international experts.