

Activities held in Georgia on the occasion of the 2005 International Day for the Preservation of the Ozone Layer

- Radio announcements – 48 times in Georgian language on Friday, 16 September 2005. Three types of announcements covered the following highlights: Ozone Layer Protection; Ozone Depleting Substances; role of the NOU.
- Banners were placed at the main rustaveli street of Tbilisi.
- Advertisement sheet was placed in the popular newspaper with 3, 500 copies.
- Activities organized in the village of Khobi of West Georgia:
 - Training workshop for refrigeration technicians was held with an award given to the best technician selected after examination test prepared by experts of Georgian Refrigeration Association.
 - Painting competition of school children previous to the demonstration of the animation film Ozzi Ozone.
 - Concert of national groups of Georgian singers and dancers.

