

THE ESSAY WRITING CONTEST IS ANNOUNCED
AMONG THE STUDENTS OF
THE TURKMEN STATE UNIVERSITY NAMED AFTER MAGTYMGULY

On SEPTEMBER 3, 2015, as continuation of started awareness activities among schoolchildren on 10th of July 2015, on the Celebration of the 30th anniversary of the Vienna Convention for the Protection of the Ozone Layer and International Day for the Preservation of the Ozone Layer 2015 under The theme for the celebration of the anniversary and this year is, "30 Years of Healing the Ozone Together." The theme is supported by the slogan, "Ozone: All there is between you and UV", by the National Ozone Unit of Turkmenistan was organized a meeting among students of the Faculty of Geography the Turkmen State University named after Magtymguly, major fields: geography, ecology and hydrometeorology for informing them about ozone layer, ultraviolet rays and its impact on human health and about how to protect yourself from it.

For the common information about Ozone Layer for students this meeting has started with demonstration a film made by UNEP- "The Antarctic Ozone Hole- from Discovery to Recovery, A scientific journey".

During the meeting by the presenters: – Coordinator of NOU, representative from Teheran Convention in Turkmenistan, head of the Department of Hydrometeorology of the Turkmen State University named after Magtymguly (TSU after Magtymguly) and head of the Department of ecology of the TSU after Magtymguly were demonstrated different Power Point presentations. Topics were about ozone layer, ultraviolet rays and its impact on human health and Synergy between the Montreal Protocol on regulation of ozone-depleting substances and the Kyoto Protocol on climate change.

For dissemination among students by NOU have been prepared and copied bulletins in Turkmen, English, Russian languages and useful links for writing essay.

At the end were Questions and answers.

At the end of the meeting Coordinator of NOU announced a contest for writing the best essay on the topic: "The relationship between the Montreal Protocol on Substances that Deplete the Ozone Layer and the Kyoto Protocol on climate change" dedicated to promoting the protection of the ozone layer, as the International Day for the Preservation of the Ozone Layer on 16 September 2015 and the 30th anniversary of the Vienna Convention on protection of the Ozone layer.

The contest for writing the best essay dedicated to promoting the protection of the ozone layer, held by the NOU of the Ministry of Nature Protection of Turkmenistan. NOU informs students about opportunities to participate in this competition.

Departments: Ecology, geography, hydrometeorology.

Courses: 2-5.

Subject: Outline a clear understanding of these Conventions/

The students paper works will be presented by themselves on 15 September 2015 at the TSU after Magtumguly since the selection of the best essays will hold the jury.

The winners of 1, 2, 3 prizes will be rewarded with gifts, prizes and diplomas of the first, second and third degree. There are also consolation prizes.

Each participant will be awarded a Certificate of Participation.

Results will be announced in a holiday atmosphere on International Day for the Preservation of the Ozone Layer 16 September 2015 at the Universities building with participation of Deputy Minister, Ministry of Nature Protection and Vice-Rector of TSU named after Magtymguly, representatives of International projects under the Ministry of Nature protection of Turkmenistan, stakeholders and etc. and will celebrate the 30th anniversary of the Vienna Convention on protection of the Ozone layer.

Coordinator of the NOU Turkmenistan

G.Jorayeva