

DPR Korea

Celebration of “International Day for the Preservation of the Ozone Layer”

Date: September 13, 2012

Place: Pyongyang, DPRK

Theme: Protecting our atmosphere for generations to come; Montreal Protocol – 25 Years of ODS Phaseout

No. of Participants: 80

50 representatives from NCCE, MoLEP, NOU, major stakeholders, civil organizations, institutes, universities and mass media agencies;

20 representatives from international organizations and diplomatic missions; 10 representatives from international organizations including MLF, UNEP and UNIDO

National Workshop

Date: September 12, 2012

Place: Hamhung, Chongjin (Provincial Cities) DPRK

Theme: Protecting our atmosphere for generations to come

No. of Participants: 200

Officials from ODS related agencies within the North and South Hamgyong Province, technicians from factories and enterprises, researchers, university instructors

Publication of Ozone Newsletter

Special edition of Ozone Newsletter will be published on the occasion of the International Ozone Day

Schoolchildren’s Drawing Contest and Prize awarding

Date: September 14, 2012

Place: Pyongyang Schoolchildren’s Palace

Participants: over 100 schoolchildren from Pyongyang City

TV broadcast

- Symposium

TV symposium with NOU/PPU will be broadcasted on Central TV Channel on September 15.

-Scientific and educational film

Scientific and educational films on ozone layer protection will be televised on Science Education Culture Channel on 2nd week of September.

Publication

Articles on ozone layer protection will be carried on newspapers “RodongSinmun” and “Pyongyang Times” during the second week of September and on the September 2012 issue of magazine “Korea.