

Activities held in Canada on the occasion of the 2006 International Day for the Preservation of the Ozone Layer

- Manitoba Ozone Protection Industry Association (MOPIA) launched ozone awareness materials which included resources (such as weblinks, posters and material order) for industry and the public to further understand their responsibilities to comply with legislation.
- A press release was prepared and distributed.