

Activities held in Jamaica on the occasion of the 2006 International Day for the Preservation of the Ozone Layer

- Articles on ozone protection were printed in the main local newspapers as well as a speech from the Minister of Environment.
- A number of radio stations held interviews with specialists on ozone protection issues.
- Presentations were held at schools during the week prior to ozone day and there were displays at the University of Technology.