

Activities held in Cameroon on the occasion of the 2006 International Day for the Preservation of the Ozone Layer

Activities to mark the 2006 celebrations consisted of a school debate pitting the Government Bilingual High School, Essos against the Government Technical High School, Nkolbisson in Yaounde, a radio quiz and a radio and television discussion on ozone protection issues.