

Activities held in Democratic Republic of Congo on the occasion of the 2006
International Day for the Preservation of the Ozone Layer

On the occasion of International Ozone Day, the Minister of Environment, Natural Conservation, Water and Forests Honorable Anselme Enerunga addressed the nation on 16 September and emphasized on the need to respond to the recommendations of the Vienna Convention and the Montreal Protocol on the protection of the layer of ozone.