

Activities held in Kenya on the occasion of the 2006 International Day for the Preservation of the Ozone Layer

International Ozone Day celebration was held at the UNEP headquarters in Gigiri where the new OzonAction Education Pack intended to educate primary school pupils on the ozone layer was launched. A few school children from the Riara Spring Academy were invited to participate in the event.