

World Meteorological Organization
Working together in weather, climate and water

Plans for the Vienna Convention Trust Fund

Geir O. Braathen

Atmospheric Environment Research Division, Research Department, WMO

Capacity building ensures data quality across the global network

- ✎ Instrument calibration campaigns
- ✎ Data analysis workshops are well received by the participants
- ✎ Important assistance from the Vienna Convention parties through the Vienna Convention Trust Fund for Research and Systematic Observations

Dobson intercomparison in Egypt, 2004

Data analysis workshop, Czech Republic, 2011

Plans for the Trust Fund for the period 2014-16

-  Relocation of Dobson no. 14 (formerly in Tromsø, NO) to Tomsk, Russia.
 - ✓ Estimated cost approx. USD 20,000. Autumn 2014.

-  Relocation of Dobson no. 8 (formerly in Spitzbergen, NO) to Sri Lanka
 - ✓ Estimated cost approx. USD 20,000. Autumn 2014.

-  Dobson intercomparisons for Asia and Africa
 - ✓ Estimated cost approx. USD 50,000. Spring and autumn of 2015.

-  Brewer Users' Group meeting and training course
 - ✓ Thailand 2015. Probably to be funded through the Canadian Brewer Trust Fund

-  Additional Dobson instruments
 - ✓ Italy (1 or 2), Hungary, Greenland

World Meteorological Organization
Working together in weather, climate and water

Thank you for your attention!

GLOBAL ATMOSPHERE
WATCH