Notes

- a/ The Vienna Convention for the Protection of the Ozone Layer was adopted in Vienna on 22 March 1985 and it entered into force on 22 September 1988.
- 1/ Formal indication received by UNEP that the ratification, acceptance, approval or accession procedures are in progress.
- 2/ Federal Republic of Germany declared that the Convention shall apply Berlin (West).
- 3/ For the Kingdom in Europe, the Netherlands Antilles and Aruba.
- 4/ The instrument of ratification indicates that in accordance with the special relationship which exists between New Zealand and the Cook Islands and between New Zealand and Niue, there have been consultations regarding the Convention between the Government of New Zealand and the Government of Cook Islands and between the Government of New Zealand and the Government of Niue, that the Government of the Cook Islands, which has exclusive competence to implement treaties in the Cook Islands, has requested that the Convention should extend to the Cook Islands, that the Government of Niue which has exclusive competence to implement treaties in Niue, has requested that the Convention should extend to Niue. The said instrument specifies that accordingly the Convention shall apply also to the Cook Islands and Niue.
- 5/ The instrument of ratification specifies that the Convention is ratified in respect of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Bailiwick of Jersey, the Isle of Man, Anguilla, Bermuda, British Antarctic Territory, British Indian Ocean Territory, British Virgin Islands, Cayman Islands, Falkland Islands, Gibraltar, Hong Kong, Monserrat, Pitcaira, Henderson, Ducie and Oeno Islands, Saint Helena, Saint Helena Dependencies, South Georgia and South Sandwich Islands, Turks and Caicos Islands and United Kingdom of Sovereign Base Areas of Akrotiri and Dhekelia in the island of Cyprus.
- 6/ The Argentine Republic rejects the ratification on 15 May 1987 of the "Convention for the Protection of the Ozone Layer" by the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, communicated by the Secretary-General of the United Nations in Note C.N.112.187.TREATIES-1 (Depositary Notification), in respect of the Malvinas Islands, South Georgia and South Sandwich Islands and reaffirms its sovereignty over the said islands, which form an integral part of its national territory.

The United Nations General Assembly has adopted resolutions 2065 (XX), 3160 (XXVIII), 31/49, 37/9, 38/12 and 39/6, which recognize the existence of a sovereignty dispute relating to the question of the Malvinas Islands and request the Argentine Republic and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to resume negotiations in order to find as soon as possible a peaceful and definitive solution to the dispute and their remaining differences relating to the question, with the intercession of the good offices of the Secretary-General, who is to report to the General Assembly on the progress made. The United Nations General Assembly has also adopted resolutions 40/21 and 41/40, which again request both parties to resume negotiations.

The Argentine Republic also rejects the ratification of the Convention by the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland in respect of what is termed by the United Kingdom the "British Antarctic Territory".

Upon ratification, the Government of Chile made the following declaration:

The Government of the Republic of Chile, upon depositing the instrument of ratification of the Vienna Convention for the Protection of the Ozone Layer, and in so doing, states that it rejects the declarations made by the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland upon ratification of the convention and by the Argentine Republic in objecting to that declaration, inasmuch as both declarations affect corresponding maritime jurisdictions. It once again reaffirms its sovereignty over that territory, including its sovereignty maritime spaces, in accordance with the definition established by Supreme Decree 1, 747, of 6 November 1940.

Notes

- b/ The Montreal Protocol on Substances that Deplete the Ozone Layer was adopted in Montreal on 16 September 1987 and entered into force on 1 January 1989 as at least 11 instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession representing two thirds of the estimated 1986 global consumption of the controlled substances had been deposited. The 58 States and EEC that have to date deposited their instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession account for approximately 90 per cent of the estimated global consumption.
- 1/ Formal indication received by UNEP that the ratification, acceptance, approval or accession procedures are in progress.
- 2/ Decision reserved as concerns the Faroe Islands and Greenland.
- 3/ With application to Berlin (West).
- 4/ For the Kingdom in Europe, the Netherlands Antilles and Aruba.
- 5/ The Protocol shall not apply to the Cook Islands and Niue.
- 6/ On behalf of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Bailiwick of Jersey, the Isle of Man, Anguilla, Bermuda, British Antarctic Territory, British Indian Ocean Territory, British Virgin Islands, Cayman Islands, Falkland Islands, Gibraltar, Hong Kong, Montserrat, Pitcairn, Henderson, Ducie and Oeno Islands, Saint Helena and dependencies, South Georgia and the South Sandwich Islands, and the Turks and Caicos Islands.
- 7/ Upon ratification, the Government of Chile made the following declaration:
- (Chile) rejects the declaration made by the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland upon ratification, as it concerns the Chilean Antarctic Territory, including the corresponding maritime zones, (Chile) reaffirms once more its sovereignty over the said territory including its maritime areas, as defined by Supreme Decree No. 1747 of 6 November 1940.
