

Summary points for the certification side event:

- Overview about activities in the Area of Technician Training and Certification carried out under the Cool Up Programme,
- Presentation on the necessity and benefits of formal technician certification schemes,
- Certification on natural refrigerants in the Netherlands including transition to government regulation,
- Country example and experience from Türkiye: Fluorinated GHG and Legislative Application in Türkiye within the Scope of the Kigali Amendment, as well as the example of:
- Improving technician qualification and challenges to formal certification in Africa.